Integrated Sustainability Communications

On-target ethical, credible, integrated ESG communications

EBS Advisory communication services focus on the substantial financial rewards resulting from Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) best-practice, by making them:

- Relevant to the financial performance of the portfolio companies
- Accessible and understandable to financial analysts
- Quantified, and where possible, monetised
- Concise
- Balanced and believable, and
- Credible – i.e. based on technically-validated data sets

By combining our diverse talents and expertise, EBS Advisory offers clients a unique story-telling solution that balances ethical performance with enhancement of shareholder value.

Full-Service Assessment and Communications Model

EBS Advisory's full-service team of technical experts include environmental science and economics, engineering, social science and anthropology, corporate finance, financial journalism, integrated communications and graphic design consultants.

EBS is able to provide a holistic solution for our clients' sustainability communication requirements.

About EBS

EBS Advisory currently advises Private Equity, Fund Managers, Banks, Asset Managers and Project Developers to leverage ESG in their fundraising efforts and project development. In the last 2 years we have implemented over 50 ESG management systems; produced ESG components of the fundraising team's roadshow material and investor packs, including training and on-site support; and provided quarterly, bi- and annual integrated, sustainability, fund and investor reports for clients globally.
